

THINKING ABOUT BEING A CROSS

	for the situation in which you were a cross (one of the majority):
1) how you crosses did it was the normal, right way
1) arrival of curl made you crosses more alike
1) stories about them/curls
1) curls couldn't hide their mistakes
1) curl expected to be like cross; good curls
1) little support for them
1) you stereotyped them? or realised differences?
1) the curl as spokesperson for all curls
1) did you crosses accept curl differences
1) curl challenged by other curls
1) curl criticised other curls
1) curl tried to do more, better, faster
1) tried to blend in with crosses; 2) jokes?
1) curl opted out

THINKING ABOUT BEING A CURL

	for the situation in which you were a curl (one of the minority):
1) how crosses did it was normal, right way
1) you were an outsider
1) stories about you
1) couldn't hide your mistakes
1) you had to be like cross + good curl
1) little support for you
1) stereotyped you? or realised differences?
1) you as spokesperson for all curls
1) did crosses accept curl differences
1) you were challenged by other curls?
1) you criticised other curls
1) you tried to do more, better, faster
1) you tried to blend in; 2) jokes?
1) you opted out/ were tempted to

FINAL QUESTIONS:

- as a cross, how much did you know about what was going on for the curls?
- as a curl, how much did you know about what the crosses were thinking?
- was it easier to answer the questions as a cross or a curl?